

The Trinity Trends - November 2022

Volume 22 Issue 10

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Faith,
Christmas and Easter aside, All Saints is my favorite festival day in the Church Year. The lighting of candles and the reading of the names of those who have joined the "Church Triumphant" in the past year, and then the opportunity to speak the names of those who have long since gone to be with Jesus but who continue to support our spirits with love and grace—such a holy and spirit-renewing time.

In case you are not familiar with the terms, the Church has long called the body of Christ—the followers of Jesus—who have passed from earthly life into heavenly existence the Church Triumphant. They are gathered together in the heavenly realm, as the writer of Hebrews describes them: a great cloud of witnesses. All the people of God who received the gift of faith and surrendered to the claim that God indeed is our creator and Jesus our Redeemer...all those souls inspired by the Holy Spirit to be about the business of loving God and loving neighbor...the Church Triumphant! The daily slog of earthly life, the encounters with the evils of the world, the diligence needed to stay faithful has paid off! The strife is o'er, the battle won!

The other term—what Christ followers who are still breathing air are called—is the "Church Militant". What I find intriguing about that ancient term is the weight it carries in reminding me that, like it or not, my life on this earth is a battle ground. It is a daily struggle to sift through all the things that would claim my time and attention and sort out where God is moving and calling me to abide. I suspect you, too, wrestle with how to most faithfully follow Jesus. Which is why, of course, that we live in faith community.

For many, many months our faith community has been fractured—impaired by the inability to draw together in person and face to face. We have survived on a thin soup of live stream and siloed living. Thanks be to God, we are able once again to come home! Home to worship together.

Home to share the journey of faith. Home to welcome new followers into the community that helps us live out our lives of faith. Home together.

It is no coincidence that "Homecoming" for Trinity and All Saints collide. Ok, coincide. For the great "cloud of witnesses" that surrounded us throughout pandemic and hurricane is the same cloud of witnesses that we will celebrate and rejoice over and share stories about and find renewed strength for following Jesus. And I can't wait to be together again!

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Bobbie

Vicar's Voice

Greetings Trinity family!

In 2010, researchers Brandon Whittington and Steven Scher published an article on the relationship between different kinds of prayer and psychological well-being. They studied 430 people, including Protestants and Catholics, Buddhists, Jews, Hindus, Muslims, and individuals who didn't identify with any religion. These participants completed several questionnaires that measured their psychological health and asked about their prayer activities.

The researchers realized there are different types of prayer. One type is thanksgiving – “expressions of gratitude towards God, made in reference to specific positive life experiences” (p. 60). For example, someone might thank God that yesterday she enjoyed a delicious meal with family and friends.

A second type of prayer is supplication – asking God to intervene in specific ways to help the person who is praying or someone else. For example, someone might ask God to assist him in finding a higher-paying job.

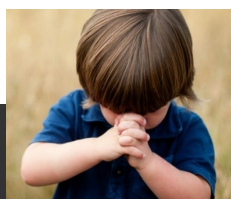

I'll focus on just two interesting results. First, the frequency of prayers of thanksgiving was positively correlated with life satisfaction and optimism. That's a fancy way of saying that participants who more often thanked God in prayer felt more satisfied with their lives and were more optimistic compared to participants who thanked God less often. In contrast, the more the participants engaged in prayers of supplication, the less satisfied they were with their lives. (Prayers of supplication weren't related to optimism one way or the other.)

These findings suggest that thanking God for your blessings can improve your well-being. That may be correct! Because the study was correlational, though, we can't rule out the possibility that participants who were more optimistic and more satisfied with life in the first place were more likely to thank God in prayer. Still, you can do your own experiment: Try increasing your prayers of thanksgiving and see if that changes the way you feel!

Is there a topic you'd like me to cover in a future newsletter column? Email it to me!

Peace and blessings to you,

Vicar Kerri

Rebecca's Notes

Dear Friends,

Advent is creeping up on us! The first Sunday in Advent is November 27 and marks the beginning of many worshipers' favorite time of the church year. Christmas music is in the air everywhere we go in our daily lives and at church we are talking and singing about the impending celebration of the birth of our Lord and Savior.

If you would like to make a short-term commitment to participating in the music program during Advent and Christmas, we welcome you! Our Sunday praise band and the traditional singers both rehearse on Tuesdays. Not only will we be preparing our Sunday music for this month, but also will be looking ahead to the Christmas Eve festivities when these groups will be offering music at two of the Christmas Eve services.

In the meanwhile, don't forget to lean into the “thankfulness” theme of November. Enjoy this beautiful poem by John Mason, set to the tune “Coe Fen” in our new hymnal All Creation Sings (1095):

- 1 How shall I sing that majesty which angels do admire?
Let dust in dust and silence lie; sing, sing, ye heav'nly choir.
Thousands of thousands stand around thy throne, O God most high;
ten thousand times ten thousand sound thy praise; but who am I?
- 2 Enlighten with faith's light my heart, inflame it with love's fire, then shall I sing and take my part with that celestial choir.
They sing, because thou art their sun; Lord, send a beam on me;
for where heav'n is but once begun, there alleluias be.
- 3 How great a being, Lord, is thine, which doth all beings keep!
Thy knowledge is the only line to sound so vast a deep;
thou art a sea without a shore, a sun without a sphere;
thy time is now and evermore, thy place is ev'rywhere.
Text: John Mason, 1646–1694

See you in worship!

Update on Julliana and Jamerson!

"If you're happy and you know it, clap your hands!" Jamerson's favorite songs involve hand clapping and holding up a finger when we sing "This Little Light of Mine" in preschool chapel. You may have seen him in worship, too, running around with his finger held high to share the light of Christ!

While the love and support that we seek to provide Julliana—and Jamerson—can never make up for the horrendous experiences that Julliana had to go through leading her to flee her homeland, we are indeed shining Christ's light for this family. If you haven't seen the article that the reporter for The Nation wrote about Julliana's journey, check it out: <https://www.thenation.com/article/society/black-migration-racism/>

Many thanks to Chef Darrell and Pattiane for creating the delicious meal to raise funds for our continued support of Julliana! Everyone loved the Asian BBQ sauce and Chef promises to share the recipe soon! The fundraiser cleared $1,120 which is a tremendous help. Thanks to all who took part—and to everyone who regularly gives time and funds to this special ministry.

As Julliana continues to work toward her G.E.D. she is expanding her vocabulary and now working on writing essays. The language arts part of the G.E.D. is the most exacting, we are told. Once she has mastered the language, moving on to the other three sections will be less daunting. It is thrilling to watch Julliana learn and see her joy in achieving new milestones!

Beach Worship!! Sun. November 20th, 5 pm

Invite family and friends to join us as we worship in one of God's most beautiful spaces! We pray, sing, and share in Holy Communion. Bring your beach chair to join us steps south of Manatee Public Beach, at the very end of Manatee Avenue. Plan to stay for the wondrous sunset!

Last month's meaningful worship time and the glorious sunset!

S.T.R.E.A.M: Stronger Together Reaching Equality Across Manatee

Our House Meetings in October were a wonderful opportunity for folks to get to know each other and to talk about the concerns we all have about injustices in our community. We will have another opportunity in November for you to join in a House Meeting, if you missed the October meetings. Please watch the bulletin and website for that announcement, as plans are still in the works. Our brothers and sisters at Redeemer Lutheran Church have expressed an interest to join us in justice ministry, so Chaplain Cliff will be hosting a group for Redeemer that will be open to folks from Trinity as well. Thank you for your prayerful support of ministry if you are not able to participate in person. Our next gathering of all the churches, to which everyone is invited to participate, is Monday, December 5th at 6:30pm. Mark your calendars!

FJT Groups Return!

For those who have been missing studying the coming week's scripture with pastor and vicar, GOOD NEWS! We are re-introducing Following Jesus Together (FJT) groups this month!

If you are new to FJT groups, this is what to expect: PB or Vicar Kerri will lead a discussion of the scripture reading or readings that will be part of the worship service for the coming weekend. Some background information will be provided, but the focus of the time together will be talking about how this particular piece of scripture informs our lives as followers of Jesus. In the past, participants have noted that being part of an FJT group strengthens their worship life and causes them to become deeply engaged in the living out of their discipleship! So, give FJT a try and meet some new friends in Christ—and renew old relationships as well!

Praise and Pinch Form

As a congregation, we are committed to voicing our praises and “not sitting on our pinches”! To be a healthy, faithful community, we need to be open with one another about what we expect in all areas of our life together. If there is anything in our community life that brings you joy or causes you to be concerned, please share your feelings and questions. Thank you for taking the time to communicate about the ways we are doing well in our ministry together at Trinity, and the areas that need attention. Please mail this form to the church office.

Mission Endowed Fund Receives Special Gift

A $5,000 gift was made to the Mission Endowed Fund in October. As our Mission Endowed fund grows, it provides more and more investment income to be used for ministry in our community.

Each year, the Mission Endowed Team makes recommendations to the Church Council for the distribution of earnings. We have distributed $36,000 in earnings since its creation in 2017. Monies have been directed to Our Daily Bread, Selah Freedom, Centerstone Mental Health Services, Turning Points, our own Advocacy fund at Trinity, the Palms Deaf church, a Lutheran Start-up congregation in Florida, to name a few of the ministries we have been able to support.

You can donate to our Mission Endowed Fund any time. These gifts accrue to grow the principal in the fund, and disbursements are made yearly, with a target of 3% annually. Thanks to all who have gifted this fund to make our disbursements possible! Please note "Endowed Fund" on your gift.

Electronic Giving

Wherever you are, you may continue to support our ministries if you have an internet connection! Secure, "paperless" gifts may be made through our website (www.TLCbradenton.com) by clicking on "Donate" on our Giving Page or on the E-Giving logo at the bottom of any page. Thank you!

From TLC Health Ministry Team: Stress, Health, and Faith

Life and stress go hand in hand. We've experienced lots of stressors in the last nearly three years — from COVID to Hurricane Ian, and everything in between. How we effectively manage and cope with the stress in our lives determines the degree to which we are healthy. Unhealthy behaviors (too much or wrong foods, alcohol or drugs, smoking, overworking, not sleeping) to cope with the stress will bring physical and emotional health issues.

Faith can be the invaluable anchor that keeps a person steady in times of stress. If followed, biblical principles can be the cornerstone our lives, enabling us to live a life less impacted by what otherwise would be stressful circumstances. The ability to manage the stress in our lives largely determines our health status.

Spiritual Exercises to help with stress:

1. Prayer
2. Attend worship services
3. Trust God and Depend on God – believe that God is in control and that God will provide for our needs. Throughout God's Word, God encourages us to surrender on a deeper level, to be humble, and to depend on God.
5. Live by the Power of the Holy Spirit – ask God to live through us. God's Spirit in us is the same Spirit that raised Jesus from the grave. The apostle Paul encourages us to live by God's Spirit.
6. Abide in Jesus – Jesus tells us in John 15 to remain in him because apart from him we can do nothing. Apart from Jesus, we are not going to be able to manage all that life throws at us, including the stress in our life.

God gives us instructions for living because God knows that if we live by them, we'll be better able to manage the stress in our life. God wants our faith to be a resource to manage our stress in a healthy way. Matthew 11:28-30: Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me: for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."
